'Working Together'

Welcome to the Summer !

We wish all of our pupils and families well as we return to school for the final term of the academic year. It seems like the school year has flown by...

We are looking forward to another exciting few months ahead at Greenhill as our oldest pupils prepare for their final term at Greenhill before transition to High School in September.

PARENTS EVENING

Thank you to everybody who attended our Parents Evening sessions before the Easter break.

We are currently reviewing the format of our end of year reports that you will receive in July.
